Library News

The start of 2022 saw the launch of a suite of new national evidence resources, funded by Health Education England. These are available to all East Cheshire NHS Trust staff and learners. New resources include: a discovery search platform, the NHS Knowledge and Library Hub; the LibKey suite of products for more seamless access to journal content; and some new e-books, including the Maudsley Prescribing Guidelines in Psychiatry. More information is available on the library website, or contact the library staff. We are happy to give a quick demo to any teams or individuals.

Download the LibKey Nomad browser extension and select 'East Cheshire NHS Trust' from the list of organisations. Any articles available as you browse the web will display a link to the full article - contact the library for more information!

NEW!!

NHS Discovery

Health Education England has launched a new resource discovery system, the NHS Knowledge and Library Hub. It offers an intuitive search experience for quick searches and options for in-depth database searches. Search journals, e-books, online resources like BMJ Best Practice and more from a single search.

You will need to sign in with your NHS Athens account to access the resources.
