Training

We offer free training in Using social media in the workplace and informal Basic IT training/help. All our training is tailored 1:1 sessions. Contact us to discuss how we can help you.

The Library has a wide selection of books which can be borrowed.

How else can we help you?

Evidence searching service: do you need to find information to develop services or to support decision making? We offer support and advice, and may be able to help by undertaking searches in health information databases and internet resources.

Inter-library loans for items not available here.

Knowledge Hubs for non-clinical staff groups are available on our website. These bring together links to quality websites.

The Library and Knowledge Service supports all staff, students and volunteers, including administrative staff, estates, managers and other non-clinical professions.

We provide a variety of facilities, resources and services. You will find reading and study space, plus photocopying, printing and scanning facilities. There are ten NHS networked PCs which are available for all Trust staff to use. They have Office applications, email, Internet and are set up for accessing ESR e-learning.

The Library staff are available 08:30-17:00 Mon-Thurs and 08:30 - 16:30 Fri for support and assistance.

We stock a wide variety of books on topics such as career development, coaching, mentoring, wellbeing, computing, and much more. There is a fiction collection for leisure reading or you can borrow the Kindle which is pre-loaded with a variety of fiction titles.

A lot of resources are only available to subscribers. Athens is the key to unlocking access - register free!

24 hour access with your staff ID Badge

Access all our journals full text online at <http://browzine.com/libraries/1293> or download the app. Search by journal title & browse to the journal, issue and article you want. Click on the article title, then enter your Athens details to view the full text. Save your favourite journals & articles.

KnowledgeShare is our targeted current awareness service. Let us know what your specific interests are and we'll email you fortnightly with links to high-impact publications in your specific areas of interest. We also email a daily Health Management update and produce monthly and bi-annual Updates and Bulletins in broader subject areas. More information and the sign-up sheet are available on the Library website:
