Keeping up-to-date

KnowledgeShare is our targeted current awareness service. We'll email you when we find high-impact publications in your specific area of interest. We also produce Updates and Bulletins in broader subject areas.

All our journals are now available online, you will need an NHS Athens password to access the full text. We have hundreds of titles relevant to nurses. Search at:

<http://browzine.com/libraries/1293>

There are lots of online resources to help you through the revalidation process. The Library website has a page for nurses which includes links to lots of relevant sources of information.

REVALIDATION

The library also has a number of books which will help, including books on writing a portfolio, coaching and mentoring. Keep up-to-date with the current evidence by signing up to Library Updates on topics relevant to your area of work / interest.

Stay up-to-date with clinical and non-clinical topics for primary care, secondary care and specialist nurses. BMJ Learning modules are accredited and respected, utilising the latest evidence. They also link to recent journal articles and guidelines. Register with your Athens account, then create your own individual BMJ Learning account to keep track of your learning, and aid your portfolio.

BMJ Learning

If you are looking for information to develop services, CPD or to support decision making, we can assist you and save your time by searching for the evidence on your behalf.

A lot of resources are only available to subscribers. Athens is the key to unlocking access. Register free:
