

Registered Nursing Degree Apprenticeship (RNDA)

Healthcare professionals with the right skills, qualifications and experience can take their career in a new direction by completing a degree-level nursing apprenticeship

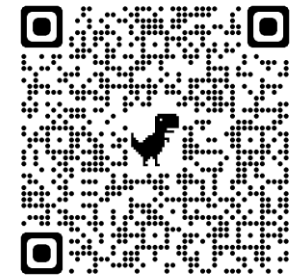

- Offered as a Level 6 degree apprenticeship, leading to a Bachelors degree and full Registered Nurse status on completion
- Usually takes 3-4 years (depending on the training provider)
- Learning fits around the apprentice's work commitments
- Involves flexible theory learning, with clinical placements
- Tuition fees are covered and RNDA's are employees of the Trust
- Applicants must have maths and English at Level 2 (GCSE or equivalent)
